HONORS AND AWARDS - 1

- Wallace Kidd Memorial Diversity Award. 2023. Kansas State University Minorities in Agriculture, Natural Resources, and Related Sciences (MANNRS) Chapter and College of Agriculture Diversity Programs Office. This award recognizes outstanding contributions and accomplishments of K-State faculty, staff and students who support diversity, equity and inclusion. The biennial award is presented to those who have demonstrated a commitment to diversity on the K-State campus or in the community through mentoring, outreach initiatives and other activities which advance the institution's goal of inclusion.
- Outstanding Article Award, Honorable Mention. August 2022. Applied Economics Teaching Resources (AETR) "How Do Students Allocate Their Time? An Application of Prospect Theory to Trade-Offs between Time Spent to Improve GPA Versus Time Spent on Other Activities," With Brian Coffey, Glynn Tonsor and Jesse Tack.
- Carl K. Eicher Award for best doctoral dissertation on a topic related to African development. Honorable Mention. International Association of Agricultural Economists (IAAE). August, 2021. Florence Lwiza's dissertation: "Three essays on economic evaluation of responses to weather-induced risks in Uganda." Barkley served as Major Professor.
- Outstanding Revised Textbook in Social Sciences, for Principles of Agricultural Economics, 3rd Edition. 2020. By Andrew Barkley and Paul W. Barkley. Awarded by Taylor & Francis, May, 2021. This award recognizes the well-written, high-quality content that Taylor and Francis authors, editors, and all team members worked so hard to produce in 2020.
- International Educator of the Year. 2020 Kansas State University Office of International Programs. Awarded to an individual who has gone above and beyond to support our university international initiatives and/or serve our global student body in extraordinary ways.
- Southern Agricultural Economics Association. Ph.D. Student Job Market Paper Competition. Second Place. Florence Lwiza and Andrew Barkley. "Weather Variability, Wealth, and Labor Mobility." February 3, 2020.
- Jack Every Journal Award. 2019 National Association of Colleges and Teachers of Agriculture (NACTA) Award for Outstanding Journal Article, "Evaluation of Teaching in Departments of Agricultural Economics."
- Professorial Performance Award, Kansas State University, 2019.
- "Last Lecture" Speaker, New Graduate and Alumni Dinner, Kansas State University College of Agriculture, April 28, 2018. Elected by graduating students in the College of Agriculture at Kansas State University.
- David Mugler Outstanding Teaching Award. 2018. Awarded by the Kansas State University College of Agriculture Alumni Board of Directors. The individual nominated should emulate the personal and professional qualities demonstrated by Dave. He was an excellent teacher and advisor who modeled the statement, "They don't care what you know until they know you care."
- Professor of the Week. February 2018. Faculty member recognized during half-time of men's conference basketball games. Selected by Kansas State University Faculty Senate.
- Faculty of the Year Award. 2017. Awarded by students in Agriculture Student Council. College of Agriculture, Kansas State University.
- Faculty of the Semester Award. Fall 2016. College of Agriculture, Kansas State University.
- Quality of Communication Award. Awarded by the Agricultural and Applied Economics Association (AAEA), August 2016. Depolarization of Food and Agriculture: An Economic Approach, by Andrew Barkley and Paul W. Barkley. Earthscan from Routledge, Oxford, England, 2015. This award is granted to encourage excellence in publications in fields consistent with the AAEA vision statement: The AAEA will be the leading organization for professional advancement in, and dissemination of, knowledge about agricultural, development, environmental, food and consumer, natural resource, regional, rural, and associated areas of applied economics and business.
- Distinguished Undergraduate Teaching Award, Ten or More Years' Experience. Awarded by the Agricultural and Applied Economics Association (AAEA), August 2016. This award recognizes meritorious performance in undergraduate teaching in agricultural economics, demonstrating outstanding ability and performance as a teacher of agricultural economics, including: teaching activities; academic advising, counseling and extracurricular activities with students; campus participation in instructional, course and curricular improvement efforts; professional improvement in teaching for benefit of self and peers; and department/college/university teaching awards.
- Mississippi Agriculture and Forestry Experiment Station Scientific Publication Award. For "The effect of warming temperature on U.S. wheat yields" published in the Proceedings of the National Academy of Sciences. 2016.
- Kappa Alpha Theta Sorority. Faculty of the Month. October 2014.
- Mortar Board National College Senior Honor Society. Outstanding Faculty Award. 2014/2015.
- Professorial Performance Award, Kansas State University, 2014.
- University Press of Kansas. Editorial Committee Member, 2014-2016. Economics and social science.

HONORS AND AWARDS - 2

- The Dr. Ron and Rae Iman Outstanding Faculty Award for Teaching, sponsored by the K-State Alumni Association. This award is designed to honor excellence in high quality of instruction, strong relationships with students inside and outside of the classroom and reputation for scholarship and distinguished service to the university. 2012-2013.
- “Last Lecture” Speaker, New Graduate and Alumni Dinner, Kansas State University College of Agriculture, May 5 2012. Elected by graduating students.
- Kappa Kappa Gamma Sorority. Recognition for dedication to students at Kansas State University. Fall, 2011.
- Mortar Board National College Senior Honor Society. Outstanding Faculty Award. 2011/2012.
- Biographical information published in Who's Who in America, 1994-2014.
- Kansas State University College of Agriculture Outstanding Faculty Advisor of the Year, 2010/2011.
- National FFA Association. Certificate of Recognition. Awarded for support of students involved in National FFA Association. 83rd National FFA Convention. Indianapolis, Indiana. October 23, 2010.
- Quest Freshmen Honorary. “Famous Professor” award. One of four K-State faculty selected by student members. Manhattan, Kansas. February 16, 2010.
- Faculty of the Semester Award. Fall 2008. College of Agriculture, Kansas State University.
- Distinguished Scholar Award, Western Agricultural Economics Association, 2008. The highest recognition of this Association for individuals making an enduring contribution over their career to agricultural, resource, and/or environmental economics in the Western states and provinces and the WAEA.
- Professorial Performance Award, Kansas State University, 2008.
- Alpha Delta Pi Sorority. Recognition for dedication to education at Kansas State University. Fall, 2007.
- Sigma Kappa Sorority. Outstanding Faculty Recognition. Fall 2006.
- Pi Beta Phi Outstanding Teacher Award. Fall 2006.

- Biographical information published in AcademicKeys Who's Who in Agriculture Higher Education, 2003.
- Honored Member, Strathmore's Who's Who, 2003-2004 Edition.
- Excellence in Education Award. Kappa Alpha Theta, Delta Eta Chapter. Manhattan, Kansas. September 17, 2003.
- Coffman Chair for Distinguished Teaching Scholars, 2003-2004. The highest recognition for teaching at Kansas State University. A faculty member acknowledged as a leading teacher scholar is appointed to the chair for one academic year.
- University Continuing Education Association, Peterson's Award (2001), National Credit Program of Excellence Award for Masters of Agribusiness Program (2000), and Region V Credit Degree Program Award for Masters of Agribusiness Program (1999), with 11 others.
- Extraordinary Teacher Citation, Kansas State University Senior Survey, 1998/1999.
- Extraordinary Teacher Citation, Kansas State University Alumni Survey, 1998/1999.
- United States Department of Agriculture National Excellence in College and University Teaching in Food and Agricultural Sciences Award, November, 1997. Awarded by the National Association of State Universities and Land Grant Colleges (NASULGC). The Excellence in College and University Teaching in the Food and Agricultural Sciences Award is sponsored by the United States Department of Agriculture (USDA) and the National Association of State Universities and Land-Grant Colleges. The program generates nominations from a large spectrum of departments in agriculture, natural resources, veterinary science, and human sciences. In addition to six regional awards, a selection committee of nationally recognized teachers and scholars chooses two national recipients and two new teacher awards. The nominees are evaluated on the basis of their ability as classroom teachers, use of innovative teaching methodology, service to students and their profession, and scholarship.
- Presidential Award for Excellence in Undergraduate Teaching, Kansas State University, 1997. The purpose of this award is to recognize excellence in teaching performance in the undergraduate program by the senior staff of the university, and to provide an incentive to achieve that goal.
- E.B. Knight 1996 National Association of Colleges and Teachers of Agriculture (NACTA) Award for Outstanding Journal Article, "Enhancing Learning through Teacher Self-Assessment."

HONORS AND AWARDS - 3

E.B. Knight 1995 National Association of Colleges and Teachers of Agriculture (NACTA) Award for Outstanding Journal Article, "Students Thinking Critically about Agricultural Issues" (Honorary Mention).

Kansas State University College of Agriculture Outstanding Teacher of the Semester. Fall Semester, 1995.

Distinguished Undergraduate Teaching Award, Less than Ten Years' Experience. Awarded by the American Agricultural Economics Association (AAEA), August 1995. This award recognizes meritorious performance in undergraduate teaching in agricultural economics, demonstrating outstanding ability and performance as a teacher of agricultural economics, including: teaching activities; academic advising, counseling and extracurricular activities with students; campus participation in instructional, course and curricular improvement efforts; professional improvement in teaching for benefit of self and peers; and department/college/university teaching awards.

Extraordinary Teacher Citation, Kansas State University Alumni Survey, 1994/1995.

Agricultural and Rural Transportation Research Paper Award, 1994. Awarded by the Transportation Research Forum for, "Where Have All the Jumbo Covered Hopper Cars Gone? An Investment Analysis of the U.S. Rail Grain Car Fleet." November, 1994, Daytona Beach, Florida.

Outstanding Undergraduate Teaching Award, 1994. Awarded by the Western Agricultural Economics Association (WAEA), July 1994.

Central Regional Outstanding Teacher, 1994. Awarded by the National Association of Colleges and Teachers of Agriculture (NACTA). The NACTA Regional Outstanding Teacher Award is presented to one individual from each of five regions (Eastern, Southern, Central, Western and Canadian).

NACTA Teacher Fellow, 1994. Awarded by the National Association of Colleges and Teachers of Agriculture (NACTA). Awarded to recognize those individuals whose efforts represent the very best in agricultural higher education. The NACTA Teacher Fellow Award is a criterion based award and is reviewed by a committee of NACTA members. Criteria included in the evaluation are the instructor's teaching philosophy; evaluations submitted by current students, alumni, administrative officers, and peers; a self-evaluation as well as factors such as availability to students, teaching innovations, and departmental/institutional activity.

Kansas Professor of the Year, 1993. Awarded by the Council for Advancement and Support of Education (CASE). Winners are chosen on the basis of their extraordinary dedication to undergraduate teaching, determined by excellence in the following four areas: impact on and involvement with undergraduate students; scholarly approach to teaching and learning; contributions to undergraduate education in the institution, community and profession; and support from colleagues and current and former undergraduate students.

Kansas State University College of Agriculture Outstanding Teacher of the Semester. Spring Semester, 1993.

Sigma Xi Scientific Research Society. Elected to membership, 1993.

Kansas State University College of Agriculture Advisor of the Year, 1992/1993.

E.B. Knight 1991 National Association of Colleges and Teachers of Agriculture (NACTA) Award for Outstanding Journal Article, "What Skills Do Graduates Need?"

Extraordinary Teacher Citation, Kansas State University Senior Survey, 1991.

Kansas State University College of Agriculture Outstanding Teacher of the Semester. Fall Semester, 1990.

University of Chicago Graduate Fellowship, 1985-88.

Pew Teaching Fellowship, University of Chicago, Winter Quarter, 1988.

Cargill Fellowship, University of Chicago, 1985-88.

Distinction in Major Field, Whitman College, 1984.

Mortar Board Honorary, Membership Chairman, Whitman College, 1983/84.

Spurs Honorary, President, Whitman College, 1982/83.

Eagle Scout, 1978.
